This documentary, featuring interviews with Newton scholars Brian H. The Frank Jenner Question

Meet Frank Jenner, a simple man with a profound question. Frank believed God had called him to approach 10 people per day on the streets of Sydney, Australia and politely ask one simple question: "If you died within 24 hours where would your soul be in eternity, heaven or hell?" It was during WWII when this question was put to servicemen and women. The possibility of imminent death would not have seemed a remote one to the many soldiers and sailors who passed through Sydney harbour on their way to and from battle assignments and it was to members of the military that Frank was most drawn. This documentary examines how Jenner's straightforward and bold outreach led to the conversion of many and influenced evangelism methods for decades to come. What emerges is a portrait of a sincere and earnest man with a pure desire to reach those around him with the message that had changed his life. The lesson of the film is not necessarily to copy Jenner's approach but to listen and obey God's call to proclaim the gospel in the context in which we live.

He was summoned to the Council of Constance and promised safety, but he was betrayed. In the end, Hus was accused, imprisoned, and charged with heresy. Ultimately, he was condemned and burned at the stake as a heretic. 55-minute version in English, Spanish, Portuguese, and French, with or without English subtitles. 30-minutes abridged version in English. Study materials in PDF format

The Lamb - Just the Story

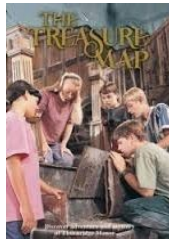

How do we explain the gospel to children in a way that they can understand? How do we explain their need for a Saviour without watering down the details? How can we hold their attention long enough to explain what the Bible is all about? How can we be accurate yet sensitive to the fact that they need simpler explanations? "The Lamb" takes children on a journey through the heart of the Bible's message. Starting with the creation of the universe, it explains key biblical concepts: Who is God? What is God like? What is sin? Where did evil come from? Why do we need a Saviour? The DVD concludes with a clear explanation of the identity of Jesus and his amazing provision as our Saviour, making a clear link between Jesus and the Old Testament sacrificial lamb. Issues like sin, evil and death are dealt with in an honest, straightforward manner. The graphic details surrounding the story of salvation are handled sensitively but not watered down. At the end, children will have an explanation of who God is and what He did for mankind on the cross. It is a message of hope that every child should hear. Show this DVD to your kids and help them develop a solid knowledge and understanding of the gospel!

* Assumes no prior knowledge of the Bible.
 * Chronological: Begins with the creation of the universe, and then progressing sequentially through key Old Testament stories, it moves into the New Testament to reveal the meaning of the cross and the tomb. The main story of the Bible is tied together into one universal, all-encompassing drama.
 * Lays a foundation: The creation-to-the-cross approach helps put the entire Bible in context. Helps children understand the overall message of the Bible without confusion. Includes a few pictures of Jesus (sensitively drawn). Subtitled in English.

They that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint. Isaiah 40:31*. The bookmark has the following words on the back: Christ makes all things new. When he walked as a Man, he cured lepers, gave sight to the blind, and multiplied scraps to feed thousands of hungry people. Then, in the ultimate act of renewal, he died on the cross - bringing you forgiveness and life. Now he wants to renew your life daily and richly with the wonder of his love. Walk with Christ, man of God, and let him give you strength.

The Cross Was His Own

They borrowed a bed to lay His head
At Jesus' incarnation;
They borrowed the colt on which He rode
Midst shouts of jubilation;
But the crown He wore, and the cross He bore
Were His own.
He borrowed the bread which the crowd He fed ...

Her Savior's love she'll share.

Not changing for all time.
When needed by her children,
A mother's love will shine...

Jesus Christ Satisfies

There's not a craving of the mind
Which Jesus cannot fill.
There's not a pleasure I would seek
Aside from His dear will.

With peace and perfect love;
While rich supplies for ev'ry need
He sendeth from above...

Lean Hard

Child of My love, lean hard,
And let Me feel the pressure of thy care;
I know the burden, child, I shaped it;
Poised it in My own hand—made no proportion
In its weight to thine unaided strength;
For even as I laid it on, I said,
I shall be near, and while she...

Words of the Lord From the Cross

When the Lord of glory was crucified—
Before He bowed His head and died—
Seven times He spoke—let us all then hear,
As these blessed words fall upon our ear.

His cross was placed on Golgotha's hill—
He was fulfilling His Father's will,....

Not Growing Old John E Roberts

They say that I am growing old;
I've heard them tell it times untold,
In language plain and bold—
But I'm not growing old.

Is growing old, I know full well—
But I am not the shell...

Rose, The

It is only a tiny rosebud—
A flower of God's design;
But I cannot unfold the petals
With these clumsy hands of mine.

The secret of unfolding flowers
Is not known to such as I—

In my hands would fade and die...
