A Mother's Love Poem Card

Celebrate the Christian Mothers in your life with this poem card. Makes a perfect keepsake for Mother's Day or any time of the year!

Full text:
There's no love like a mother's,
Her heart is filled with care.
With Christ as her example,
Her Savior's love she'll share.
A mother's love is endless,
Not changing for all time.
When needed by her children,
A mother's love will shine.
God bless these special mothers,
God bless them every one.
For all their tears and heart-aches,
And special work they've done.
When days on earth are over,
A mother's love lives on,
Through many generations,
God's blessings on each one.
Be thankful for our mothers,
Who love with higher love,
From power God has given,

This poem is them followed by verses: 1 Corinthians 13:4-7 and Proverbs 31:10, 28

Sweet Relationships

by Teri Maxwell
Sweet Relationships is a powerful Bible study on Titus 2:4-5. This book will guide you toward sweet relationships with those you love the most. Teri's personal writing style, intertwined with Scripture and study questions, practically breaks down these verses that are vital to Christian women. Through this exciting book, you'll discover what it takes to be a Titus 2 woman. How does one learn to treasure the most precious relationships the Lord has entrusted to us? What does it take to be a keeper at home? How does one learn joy in the midst of difficult circumstances? What does it mean to be discreet, or chaste, or good? Our children want to hear the love in our hearts spoken through our words, communicated via our attitudes, and expressed on our faces. In addition, our husbands need to feel loved and respected. It thrills Teri (mom to eight, grandma to seven, and wife to Steve for forty years) to share with other Christian ladies how to practically attain this. This is a hands-on book that has Bible-study questions interspersed throughout the text, allowing space to write your answers. At the end of each chapter, you'll find homework assignments. It's a perfect individual Bible study, mother-daughter study, friend-to-friend study, or large-setting group study.

Paperback. 175 pages. Titus 2. KJV

Sweet Journey

By Teri Maxwell
Whether you are struggling with discouragement, anger, fear, loneliness or simply want a closer walk with Jesus, Sweet Journey is a Bible study leading you in the right direction. This book has the potential to dramatically change your life. Many ladies long for a Titus 2 woman in their lives. Through the words of Sweet Journey, Teri becomes that kind of a mentor. She has an intense desire to see ladies grow spiritually and experience the true joy and victory that comes from the sweet journey.

This is a hands-on book that has Bible study questions interspersed throughout the text, allowing space to write your answers. At the end of each chapter, you'll find homework assignments plus Teri's answers. It's a perfect individual Bible study, mother-to-daughter study, friend-to-friend study, or large-setting group study. Paperback. 192 pages. Titus 2. KJV.

They Looked For a City

by Lydia Buksbazen
This fascinating book tells the incredible but true story of a Jewish family in Eastern Europe and their bitter but triumphant struggle for survival. Travel back in time to a busy market street in Poland, where tragedy strikes as savage Russian Cossacks brutally ride down shoppers. Witness the heroic sacrifice of a young Jewish mother protecting her daughters. Meet Yente and Benjamin who, despite bitter opposition, discover love in the Warsaw Ghetto, which was then the heart of European Jewry. Their lives weave a tale of betrayal and separation, confusion and desperation, failure and success. Caught in the maelstrom of war, their little family is torn apart by a devastating series of events, producing a heartbreaking situation with no apparent solution. In the midst of international chaos and conflict, months of agonizing separation result in a truly miraculous family reunion. Paperback. 234 pages. Friends of Israel. KJV.
BKFOITLC $12.55

Elena

by Harvey Yoder
Growing up in a poor Christian home in communist Romania brought its own kind of suffering for Elena. Losing both her grandfather and father also took a toll on the young girl. With nine children to raise, Elena's mother was encouraged to send some of the children to boarding school, especially as the state had confiscated the family's land. At the age of eleven, Elena was sent to a distant state boarding school where she endured loneliness, ridicule and abuse. As she grew older, Elena found her niche in running. The Christian teaching she had received at home faded to the background as she trained with a vengeance to become the fastest runner in Romania. Her goal seemed close, when God's loving call changed her life's course!

After making a total commitment to Christ, Elena was kept under surveillance by the communists due to her involvement in children's work in the church, contact with foreigners and Bible smuggling. Nevertheless, she was determined to work for the Lord. Finally, she tried unsuccessfully to escape from Romania twice. The second attempt landed her in prison. There, although suffering many hardships and more ridicule, Elena found that our sovereign God can use trials to strengthen His children and increase their faith in Him. Finally, through pressure put on the government by foreign Christians, Elena was released from prison and later permitted to emigrate to the USA. Paperback. 240 pages. TGS. KJV.

Not My Will

by Ghislaine Spence
On the voyage of life we're often fearful, confused, and question the Lord's dealings with us. Ghislaine Spence—a wife, mother and grandmother, has felt the same. Not My Will is the author's autobiographical account of her journey on the pathway of life. Beginning with her early childhood in Quebec, it traces her upbringing, relationships, life experiences, and times of grief and tragedy. It also chronicles the struggles that ultimately carried her and her husband to a prison ministry. An incredibly inspiring story, it shows how the Lord sends adversity in our lives—not only to reshape us, but also to teach us the enjoyment of His love, fellowship and peace that can only come through submission to His will. "...Who teacheth like him?" (Job 36:22). Paperback. 315 pages. KJV.

A Woman of Prayer

by Betty Henderson
Most of us would acknowledge that we don't pray as much as we should. And we admire the great men and women who seem to have found the answer to fervent praying. But we too can find the answer by asking the right question. What must change for me to spend more time alone with God? In her uplifting and practical Bible study, Betty Henderson invites you to live life as A Woman of Prayer. Believers acknowledge that prayer is an integral part of Christian living, but how many of us know what prayer entails? From the basic "Prayer Principles" to the realities of "Prayer Practiced," Henderson takes Christian women step-by-step through Scripture, demystifying our prayer life with a challenge to simply converse with the God, who hears. Successive Bible study and practical, spiritual application draw out valuable lessons from God's Word for women today and make A Woman of Prayer ideal for discipleship and personal or group devotions. Paperback. 90 pages. Journeyforth. KJV

Heart to Heart

by V Hallowell & others
A collection of helpful articles by Christian women for Christian women. God views things in the scope of eternity, and He can see everything clearly. Our vision is limited, but sometimes when we are farther along a trail, we can look back and see things we did not see before. God our Father has put us all on the road of life together. He has asked women who are older, which includes the contributors to this book, to be "teachers of good things" (Titus 2:3), to share His ways with younger women. You will find Heart to Heart brimming with "good things" for your varying roles as a woman of God. Paperback. 210 pages. BTP.
